

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDY

INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY
presents the SPRING GRADUATE CONFERENCE
11.45 - 5.00 P.M., FRIDAY 10TH FEB 2006
ST273, STEWART HOUSE (directions at end)

---

11.45-1.00: Elizabeth Cripps (UCL)
"The discursive dilemma and collective decision-making"
Chair/Commentator: Colin Johnston (London)

1.00-2.00: Sandwich Lunch will be provided in Room ST276.
Please email philosophy@sas.ac.uk with LUNCH PLEASE in the subject header

2.00-3.15: Al Coffee (Birkbeck)
"Freedom, domination and psychological burden"
Chair/Commentator: Charles Travis (Kings)

3.15-3.45: Tea (Room ST276)

3.45-5.00: Laura Duhau (Kings)
"Do Animals Think Conceptually?"
Chair/Commentator: Tom Crowther (Heythrop)

*

The next graduate conference will be in conjunction with University of California Berkeley on Thurs 18 May and Fri 19 May 2006 in London.

Please contact the convenors if you would like to contribute.
Convenors: Tim Crane, IP; Fraser MacBride, BBK; Charles Travis, KCL;
Tom Crowther, Heythrop; Mark Kalderon, UCL

Stewart House can be approached from both Malet Street and Russell Square.
Stewart House lies between Senate House and Russell Square, with the main reception on your left as you come into the Senate House car park from Russell Square, or your right as you come through the vestibule from Malet Street. Pass reception, take the lift or stairs to the second floor and follow signage.